POST-OPERATIVE SURGICAL WOUND:

Please remember that washing your hands before and after touching your surgical area is very important.

Dressings can generally be removed within 2 days. Your provider will give specific instructions.

Often times Surgical Glue is used. This generally stays in place for a week or more and will eventually dissolve.

Steri strips (butterfly bandages) if used will stay in place for about 14 days. If the ends of them curl you could trim them. Please leave intact as long as possible.
