

SACRAL NEUROMODULATION

A sacral neuromodulator is an implanted system that stimulates the sacral nerves to help the bladder, bowel, urethra, and pelvic floor muscles work in better coordination. It helps patients with urinary frequency, urgency, bowel and bladder incontinence, and incomplete emptying of the bladder. It helps restore bladder and bowel function to as normal as possible with gentle stimulation to the sacral nerves.